

Scotiabank's Guangzhou Branch Recognized for Best Performance in FX Business in China

TORONTO, March 21, 2011 – Scotiabank's Guangzhou Branch has been recognized for best performance in foreign exchange (swap) business in China's Guangdong Province interbank foreign exchange market for 2010 by the National China Foreign Exchange Trading Center (CFETC). The Guangzhou Scotiabank Branch received the "2010 Excellence Award" for the fourth consecutive year by the CFETC, the interbank trading and foreign exchange division of China's central bank.

"Scotiabank is honoured to receive this recognition from the CFETC for our commitment to providing clients in China with superior service and market intelligence," said Barry Wainstein, Vice-Chairman and Deputy Head, Global Capital Markets, and Global Head, Foreign Exchange and Precious Metals, Scotia Capital. "Receiving this honour for the fourth year in a row underscores our ongoing dedication to the highest standards of excellence and position as a global leader in foreign exchange."
